Wandering's Wanderings (Updated Aug 15, 2021)

It's that time again for updates and mental meanderings. In this publication of plentiful passages and prognostication you will find the holiday schedule for the rest of the year and assorted tidbits and teasers.

"Verily, this vichyssoise of verbiage veers most verbose vis-à-vis an introduction and so..." with this volume it is my very good honor to..." vex your vivacity and vivify your vocabulary.

(Inspired from "V for Vendetta")

Construction Updates

Well, it's here. I was hoping for more time, but alas, it's gone. As of August 24, 2021, the Port Washington Road on and off ramps will be closed until late October.

If coming from the south, please get off on the Brown Deer Road exit, turn right onto Brown Deer Road, then turn LEFT onto Port Washington Road. That'll get you to our office with only a couple of minutes difference.

I've enclosed a separate sheet with updated information. Sorry, folks, no dates were included in the updates.

Did you know? The Gregorian calendar is the most widely used calendar in the world. However, it isn't the only one. There are 6 other regular calendars: The Chinese calendar, The Hebrew Calendar, The Islamic Calendar, The Persian Calendar, The Ethiopian Calendar, and the Balinese Pawukon.

Happy Year of the Tiger

Want to know what it means? Ask me at our next appointment! ;)

Want a hint?

Nope!

Winter and Ick

I'm thinking we need to use common sense with regard to our winter policy, as well as our sick policy. I'm so very tired of canceling appointments because the weather dolts dither about their days deciding on so-called dangerous deluges of what ends up being diddly. But, as I am reminded time and again - better safe than sorry!

The same is true for feeling sick and allergies - we all have to take personal stock of how we're feeling. You know yourself better than I do, but because of Covid, you may be refused entry if you show signs of illness of any kind.

So - a gentle reminder: If'n it's snowing, STAY HOME! If'n you worried, STAY HOME! If'n yer feeling under the weather (get the pun?), STAY HOME!!! I don't want yer cooties and I don't want to take them home to my wife and she-banshie of a cat! (Okay - maybe the cat...)

Basically - use common sense, folks, and we'll be just fine!

"Mental health... is not a destination, but a process. It's about how you drive, not where you're going."

—Noam Spencer, PhD.

Client Portal

Up at 3:00am in the morning worrying about the impending snow storm? Embarrassed that you have to change your appointment YET AGAIN? Don't want to call because your cell phone is all nasty from the crumbs and slobber left by the children? Well, there's a way you can control your appointments yourself - the Client Portal!

You can ask me to hook you up to the portal or you can go to this link to get started: <https://sacwan.clientsecure.me/>

Either way, you can now control your own appointments.
